Established in 1989, the Post-Polio Network (NSW) Inc is a voluntary self-funded self-help organisation run by and for polio survivors. The Network provides information and support to people experiencing the late effects of polio and their care-givers, and works in partnership with health care professionals in the management of polio's late effects and to encourage polio-related research. The Network's programs are funded by membership subscriptions and donations.

The Post-Polio Network is incorporated under the Associations Incorporation Act and is an authority holder under the Charitable Fundraising Act. The Network is recognised by the Australian Taxation Office as a public benevolent institution, and gifts to the Network are therefore tax deductible.
